Waiver and Release of Liability

I understand and accept the risks, stated and unstated, of outdoor recreational and wilderness activities, and hereby voluntarily agree to release, waive, indemnify and hold harmless Adventure Mission Corps, Inc., its owners, employees, trip leaders, and all associated parties, collectively referred to as "AMC".

I understand that AMC provides services, experiences, and equipment to facilitate Rafting, Boating, Rock Climbing/Rappelling, Horseback Riding, Mountain Climbing/Hiking, Outdoor Camping, Skiing, Fishing, and other related outdoor recreational and wilderness activities that vary from time to time.

I understand that AMC is an independent, non-profit organization that expresses Catholic beliefs and teachings, including regular prayer, mass, and shared reflections during its activities. I understand that if my conduct compromises group activities, in the sole discretion of AMC, I may be removed from the activity without refund of my expenses.

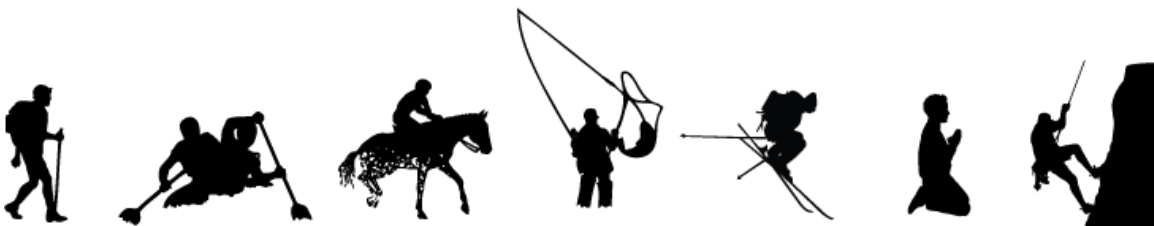

I understand that if I am under 18 years of age, I must provide parental consent to participate in AMC's programs, and must provide their contact information to AMC.

I understand and acknowledge that outdoor recreational activities have inherent, various and numerous risks, dangers and hazards, not all of which can be listed, known, or anticipated.

I understand my participation in such activities may result in injury or illness to me and others, including, but not limited to bodily injury, disease, strains, fractures, dehydration, food & water illness, partial and/or total paralysis, disability, or death. These risks and dangers may be caused by the negligence of the owners, employees, officers, partners, or agents of AMC. These risks may be complicated by wilderness elements including, but not limited to, wild animals, weather, geographic location, and acts of nature.

I understand that my personal belongings may be lost, damaged, or stolen while participating in AMC activities, and that I am solely and personally responsible for my belongings.

I understand that AMC maintains the right to photograph and record activities in which I participate. All such photos, recordings, and images are immediately the sole, exclusive property of AMC. AMC, at its sole discretion, may post, publish, and advertise images that include my likeness, in sound and image, for promotional and/or commercial purposes.

CANDIDATE ENROLLMENT APPLICATION & WAIVER

I understand the venue of any dispute that may arise with AMC shall be Fulton County, Georgia.

I have read and understood all these statements; I accept full personal responsibility without recourse of any kind to AMC during and following AMC activities.
